THE VEHEVALLE EVENT INVICORATING CORDIAL

TOR GENITAL PEBILITY, IMPOTENCY, INCONTINENCE, OR NOCTURNAL EMISSIONS, &c.—The astonishing success which has attended this invaluable medicine, for Loss of Muscular Energy, Physical Lassitude, and General Production, or any of the consequences of youthful indiscretion, or indulgence of the passion in riper years, renders it the most valuable preparation ever discovered.
In fact, as a remedy for the above complaints, it stands unrivalled and alone. There is no other reliable remedy, or any that has authentically received the sanction of the Medical faculty. The Wonderful Vegetable ProDUCTION of which this medicins is composed has been tested, and its virtues proclaimed, by the highest names of the faculty of London, Paris, and the chief cities of Europe, as well as by eminent Physicians in this country. It is the only infallible remedy for NERVOUS, HEAD, and MIND COMPLAINTS—the mential physic so long sought for and never before found—the only agent that can administer to MIND DISEASES. It will remove all nervous affections, DEPRESSION, EXCITEMENT, incapacity to study or business, less of MEMORY, CONFUSION, thoughts of selfdestruction, fear of insanity, &c. It will restore the appotic, renew the health of those who have destroyed it by some that these disorders, emissions, &c., were incurable.
This, however, is not the fact.

DR. MOINE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL has cured, and is coustantly curing, these complaints—relieving the mental and bodily incapacity of the unfortunets sufferer, as and is constantly curing, these complaints—relieving the mental and bodily incapacity of the unfortunate sufferer, a the following testimony of the names received will conclumental and bodily incapacity of the unfortunate sufferer, as the following testimony of the names received will conclusively show:

Dr. Woodward, of ——, Massechusetts Insane Hospital, writes of one of his patients being cured by using this Cordial thus: "It gives me pieseurs to inform you that one of ony patients, while in Boston, precured some of your Cordial. He tells me that he has not had a single emission since he commenced taking it, while before he had two or three a week. When he applied to me," says Dr. W., "I thought it hardly possible for him ever to regain his full strength. I prescribed the usual medicine used in those cases in the hospital, but they had no effect. In the mean time he purchased some of you? Cordial, which has effected a cure I am sure no other medicine would. I shall evar recommend it, whenever an opportunity cocurs."

The nature of the maladies relieved by this Cordial are generally such as to leave the publication of certificates of cures out of the question. The proprietor could produce a host of the most conclusive testimeny to show that the great reputation it enjoys was not accidentally obtained, but is firmly based upon its positive and apparently miraculous virtues. In all directions are to be found the happy parameter of healthy offsprings, who would not have been so but for this extraordinary preparation. And it is equally potent for many diseases for which it is recommended.

THE MEDICAL JOURNALS
have not, in a single instance that has been authenticated, given their sanction to any other preparation for the above complaints. It has, in many violent and desperate cases, effected realiest cures, after patients had been abandoned, and their condition pronounced hopeless by medical practitioners of high professional character.

THE COMMON EXPRESSION
of those who have used this Extract is: "I had heard your Cordial highly spoken of, but was one of the incredulous in

of those who have used this Extract is: "I had heard your Cordial highly spoken of, but was one of the incredulous in rogard to its merits, having tried various medicines sold for the same purpose, (different Sarsaparillas,) without deriving any benefits. I had almost given up all hope of obtaining relief, when I purchased some of yeur Cordial. I had no faith whatever of its benefiting me—but it has. I feel stronger, have had no emissions since, although it is not three weeks. I am astisfied that the half a dozen bottles I took will cure me."

Another says: "I had consulted several distinguished physicians. Some said I could not be cured; others prescribed this thing and that; but I found no relief until I procured some of your Cordial. I must say is completely

oured me."

Another says: "I was surprised at the effect your Cordial had. Why had I not heard of it before? It would have sayed me so much expense, besides years of mental and bodily suffering."

CAUTION.—Ask for Dr. Morse's Cordial, and take no

cuer, as there are worthless initations which its unrivalled excellence, fame, and popularity have brought into the market. It will not hurt the most delicate female, but do good. Beware of all other Cordials, &c., and try only this. It is put up in pint bottles, with the words Dr. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL blown on the glass. Price $3 per bottle; two bottles, $5; six bottles, $12; and $24 per dozen.

No Mercury or Nameous Drugs used.

Weakness, Loss of Organic Powers, Pains in the Loins, Disease of the Kidneys, Affections of the Head, Throat, Nose and Skin, Constitutional Debility, and all those horris affections arising from a Certain Secret Habit of Youth, that soltary practice, more fatal to its viotims than the song of the Syrens to the mariners of Ulysses—blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, rendering Marriage, etc.,
impossible.

A CURE WARRANTED, OR NO CHARGE.

impossible.

Young Men especially, who have become the victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of elequence, or waked to ecstacy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE.

Married persons, or those contemplating marriage, being aware of physical weaknees, should immediately consult Dr. J., and be restored to perfect health.

Office, No. 7 South Frederick street, Baltimore, Maryland, on the left hand side, going from Baltimore street, seven doors from the corner. Be particular in observing the name and number, or you will mistake the place.

DR. JOHNSTON.

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing curse that were over known. Many troubled with ringing in the ears and head when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, and beshfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cursed immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by private and improper indulgences, that secret and scittary habit, which ruln both body and mind, unfitting them for either business or society.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loes of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsie, Norvous Instability, Derangement of the Digostive Functions, General Deblity, Symptoms of Consumption, &c., &c.

Mentally.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loes of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion of Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

NERVOUS DEBILITY.

Weakness of the system, Nervous Debility and premature decay generally arise from the destructive habit of youth, that solitary practice se fatal to the healthful existence of man, and it is the young who are most apt to become its Victims, from an ignorance of the dangers to which they subject themselves. Parents and Guardians are often missled with respect to the cause or source of disease in their sons and wards. Alas! how often do they asserbe to other causes the wasting of the frame, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, derangement of the Nervous System, Cough, and Symptoms of Consumption; also those serious Mental effects, such as loss of Memory, Depression of Spirits, or peculiar fits of Melancholy, when the truth is, they have been caused by indulging in Pernicious but alluring practices, destructive to both Body and Mind. Thus are swept from existence thousands who might have been of use to their Country, a pleasure to their friends, and ornaments to Society.

DR. JOHNSTON'S INVIGORATING REMEDY FOR OE-NERVOUS DEBILITY.

Society. DR. JOHNSTON'S INVIGORATING REMEDY FOR OR-GANIC WEAKNESS.

DR. JOHNSTON'S INVIGORATING REMEDY FOR ORGANIC WEAKNESS.

This grand and important Remedy has restored strength and vigor to thousands of the most debilitated individuals, many who had lost all hopes, and been abandoned to die. By its complete invigoration of the Nervous System, the whole faculties become restored to their proper power and functions, and the fallen fabric of life is raised up to beauty, consistency and duration, upon the ruins of an emaciated and premature decline, to sound and pristine health. Oh, how happy have hundreds of misguided youths been made, who have been suddenly restored to health from the devastations of those terrife maladies which result from indiscretion! Such persons, before contemplating should reflect that a sound mind and bedy are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without this, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with sur own. Let no false delicacy prevent you, but apply immediately.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. Johnston may religiously confide in his honor as a Gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a Physician.

TO STRANGERS.

The many thousands cured at this institution within the last ten years, and the numerous important Surgical Operations performed by Dr. J., witnessed by the Reporters of the papers and many other persons, notices of which have appeared again and again before the public, is a sufficient guaran by that the sifflicted will find a skifful and honorable physician.

TAKE NOTICE.

It is with the greatest reluctance that Dr. Johnston per-physician.

TAKE NOTICE.

It is with the greatest rejuctance that Dr. Johnston permits his card to appear before the public, deeming it unprofessional for a physician to advertise; but unless he did so, the afflicted, especially strangers, could not fail to fall into the hands of those imprudent, boasting impostors—individual. the hands of those imprudent, boasting impostors—individ-uals destitute of knowledge, name, and character—pediars, shoemakers, mechanics, &c. advertising themselves as phy-sicians; ignorant quacks, who keep you trifling month after month, as long as possible, and in despair leave you with ruined health to sigh over your galling disappointment. It is this motive alone that induces Drag. to advertise, for he alone can care you. To those unacquidinted with his reputation he deems it necessary to say, that his credentials or diplomas always hang in his Office.

Weakness of the Organs immediately cured, and full vigor restored.

AMERICAN TELEGRAPH.

Letter of Hon. William A. Graham.

At a Whig mass meeting, held on the 10th ult., in Statesville, North Carolina, among a number of letters read was the following from the Hon. WM. A. GRAHAM, the Whig candidate for the Vice Presidency:

HILLSBOROUGH, Sept. 4, 1852. GENTLEMEN: I gratefully acknowledge your avor of the 26th ultime, inviting me to a mass seeting of our political friends in that part of the State at Statesville, on the 10th instant, in honor of the nominees of the Whig Convention at Baltimore for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States. You are pleased to add that this assemblage has been appointed at the site of the old States-ville Academy, not very distant from the place of my birth, and whither I was sent, when I first left my parental home, to pursue that course of education which was to determine my destiny in greeting.

Few events, I beg to assure you, could offer me more gratification than to comply with this flattering and cordial invitation. It awakens recollections dear to my heart, and adds the charms of personal friendship to political appro-bation. Confidence has been said to be a plant of slow growth. After a life, now past meridian, and for nearly twenty consecutive years connected with public affairs, it is to me refreshing to be reassured that, as regards myself, it is yet fresh and unbroken in the soil where it first took root. You likewise suggest that the occasion will be an appropriate one to vindicate the great man with whom I am associated in this election from charges of hostility to the South, and infidelity to the Compromise of the last Congress. It is one of the shallowest and commonest devices of party to find out what is most odious or distasteful to the prevailing sentiment of a country, or section, and impute that to its epponent. This charge of favoring abolition, or being under its influence, has been a standing accusation at the South against every Whig candidate for the Presidency for the last sixteen years. It was alleged against Harrison, whose competitor has been the abolition candidate for that high station; against Clay, whose successful competitor ap-proved the Oregon Territorial bill, inhibiting slavery therein, whese rival declined to vote for the fugitive slave law, because it did not provide a jury trial for the returned fugitive-in the federal courts, of course. It was alleged against Mr. Webster, so long as he stood a chance for the nomination; and his most patriotic speeches, advising acquiescence in the Compromise, were gar-bled and criticized to substantiate it: and it was freely imputed to Mr. Fillmore by the opposition press of this State, even after he had approved all the Compromise measures, and had issued orders for the execution of the fugitive slave law by military force, if occasion should demand it. And had he or Mr. Webster been the nominee of the Convention, instead of General Scott, there would have been, so far as regards this objection, if we may judge of the future by the past, but the change of a name. The tale would have been repeated, and probably with more emphasis. While the people of the South will be vigilant and firm in the maintenance of their just rights, I trust they will be misled by no idle clamor. After an agitation of many years on matters con-nected with slavery, there has been an adjustment, in which I am persuaded the mass of the American people has acquiesced. The authors and friends of that adjustment, I am sure, will be the last to reopen the controversy.

So far as may depend on me, the charges against General Scott, to which you refer, have been already negatived, and that in a manner indicating a stronger conviction on my part than any reasoning I can employ. Bound to North Carolina by every tie of interest and affection which attaches other men, I am obligation of gratitude for her highest honors repeatedly bestowed. If I could consent to compromit her interests or honor, in a matter vital to the South and the Union, by any combination or association adverse to her, I should be untrue, not merely to the impulses of patriotism, but to the instincts of nature. When, therefore, I accepted the nomination for the Vice Presidency, (which your delegates in the Convention will bear me witness I had not sought,) knowing what principles had been declared by a convention, and that General Scott was my associate for the Presidexcy, by that act I proclaimed my confi-dence in him more emphatically than I can now do in words. I had known him familiarly for twelve years, and was intimately associated with him during the most trying period of the Compromise, when its fate was suspended in doubtful scales. I knew that he had been the friend of these measures when they stood in need of friends; that independently of his illustrious services and world-wide fame, which will place him in American history side by side with Plutarch's men in the republics of antiquity, and which forbid any petty sectional or factious views to be enter-tained by him, he was committed to the Compromise as one of its most effective supporters at the time of its adoption. And to me, who have been in a position ever since to observe the progress of events in connexion with this subject, and to whose lot it fell to issue the orders for the execution of the fugitive slave law by military force, if necessity should require it, within forty days after its enactment, it has been gratifying to observe how opposition to the Compromise has given way, and many who stood out in opposition long after its passage, have become its ardent supporters. If its enemies have become its friends, it is cause for rejoicing; but let them not be permitted to transmute its friends into enemies. I regret that it will not be in my power to be present at your meeting, nor is it my expecta-tion to address popular assemblies in this canvass: but I could not refrain from saying thus much in reply to your cordial and obliging letter. I beg you to believe me, gentlemen, with great respect, your obedient servant, WM. A. GRAHAM To Messrs. W. P. - CALDWELL, R. H. PARKS, JOHN DAVIDSON, R. REID, and MILTON CAMP-BELL, Committee.
